

Nicole Baumann, USA: Oklahoma City University student who spent a semester at UIR

"Morocco is an incredibly beautiful and diverse country filled with some of the most welcoming and passionate people. There is always something new to learn about the culture, religion and way of life that is genuine and truly wholesome."

Gema Fernandez, Spain: Universidad Autonoma de Madrid Erasmus+ student who spent a semester at UIR

"The university offered space for interaction, exchange and constant learning. Faculty and students were very nice and welcoming. Everyone here tries to help you if you need something and even invites you to their homes unexpectedly. This is not something I am used to in Spain. In general, I can say it has been a great experience."

International Students at UIR say:

Salma Mohamed, Canada: Ottawa University student who spent a semester at UIR

"Between the ancient historical sites left for adornment and the exciting growing urban cities, Morocco has left a wonderful impression on me. It always fascinates me how diverse Moroccans are, and it is easily reflected in their language, food, and Souq. My experience here is a memory I will never forget, and I am very happy to have chosen Morocco as a destination to do my exchange."

Alfonso Casani, Spain: Universidad Autonoma de Madrid PhD Erasmus+ student who spent a semester at UIR

"Rabat allows you to make a wide variety of plans, it has a very rich cultural life, cinemas, theatres, bookstores and many beautiful French-influenced coffee shops to relax and pass your time. The city also offers you the comfort of cultural proximity while realizing the important history culture and civilization that there is behind Morocco, which project a completely different understanding of life."
